The attack by the Sectarian Fundamentalists on Nankana Sahib in Pakistan is unfortunate: ABVP

The Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad strongly condemns the attack on the gurudwara at Nankana Sahib in Pakistan by the sectarian fundamentalists. The incidents of similar atrocities on religious minorities in Pakistan is stigma on humanity.

When the religious minorities are facing attacks, the silence of the alleged Human Rights Activists and global leaders is disappointing and it even puts a question mark on them for calling themselves human rights protectors.

ABVP's National General Secretary Nidhi Tripathi said, "The way minorities are being attacked in India's neighbouring countries are extremely worrying for the whole world. It is very unfortunate that in an Islamic country like Pakistan, State sponsored persecutions of religious minorities is being done systematically. The global leaders must come forward to prevent this unfortunate situation and everyone must stand to protect human rights by becoming the voices of minorities together."
