Wholeheartedly welcome Supreme Court's verdict in Ayodhya case: ABVP

Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad wholeheartedly welcomes the unanimous verdict on Ram Janmabhoomi case by a five-judge bench of the Supreme Court. Ram Janmabhoomi case was the most awaited and most important case. Today's verdict has put an end to centuries of deadlock.

After listening to both the parties, the Supreme Court has given the historic decision of handing over the disputed land to the Ramjanmabhoomi Nyas, and giving alternate land to the Sunni Waqf Board.

While welcoming the verdict, National General Secretary of ABVP Ashish Chauhan said, "This is a historic verdict. Vidyarthi Parishad wholeheartedly welcomes the decision. Hindus, Muslims – every Indian should welcome this verdict and move forward. We are confident that the Government will soon start the process of construction of grand Ram Mandir in Ayodhya. With construction of the Ram Mandir India will move forward with its tradition of respecting all forms of worship. This is a very important verdict in that direction.
