ABVP heartily welcomes PM's appeal for a 21-day lockdown

ABVP wholeheartedly welcomes the Hon'ble Prime Minister's appeal for a 21-day lockdown to decisively fight the global pandemic - Coronavirus on a war-footing. This is a significant step to contain the spread of the virulent disease.

In this unprecedented hour of crisis, ABVP is determined to extend all possible help towards maintaining the supply of essential services. The ABVP volunteers continue to remain alert to discharge their civic responsibilities and act according to the directions of local administrations for the maintenance of essential public services.

Nidhi Tripathi, National General Secretary, ABVP, said, "ABVP appreciates the government's efforts and appeal for a 21-day lockdown and urges the people to close ranks behind the government to check the spread of the Coronavirus. ABVP volunteers, in the spirit of national and public service will do their best to aid the efforts of local administrations across the country."
