ABVP to undertake 'Parishad Ki Pathshala' campaign for school students

In an attempt to offset the loss of valuable teaching hours due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad is going to commence 'Parishad Ki Pathshala', an initiative aimed at teaching school students. Since a large number of students in the country still do not have the means to access e-learning resources hence ABVP will take up Parishad Ki Pathshala to run classes in the offline mode.

Nidhi Tripathi, National General Secretary, ABVP, said, "The Covid-19 pandemic has given birth to a number of challenges for students. Through Parishad Ki Pathshala, we aim to teach school students in small groups of 10-15 learners in various subjects like Mathematics, Science, English etc while strictly observing the practice of physical distancing. ABVP activists and teachers will educate the school students in Parishad Ki Pathshala."
