-: Press Release :-

ABVP applauds India's military brilliance and decisive leadership

The cowardly terrorist attack in Pahalgam, which targeted innocent Hindu Tourists, has shaken the soul of the entire nation. This act of violence is not only against human values but also a direct assault on India's security, integrity, and cultural consciousness.

Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad (ABVP) heartily commends the government's leadership and the courage of the Indian armed forces for launching the decisive exercise "Operation Sindoor" in response to the Pahalgam Terrorist Attack. This is not merely a military action but a symbol of India's collective consciousness, national pride, and the clarity of its security policy.

ABVP believes that the complete eradication of Pakistan-sponsored terrorism and its supporting networks is essential and imperative for the enduring security of the nation and humanity at large. ABVP strongly condemns the attacks carried out by the Pakistani army targeting religious sites and civilian areas along the Indian border.

In this challenging time, the Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad appeals to all citizens to fully comply with the directives issued by the government and administration, maintain unity, restraint, and harmony in the country, and ensure that no conspiracy by anti-national forces succeeds.

ABVP's national general secretary Dr. Virendra Singh Solanki, stated, "Operation Sindoor is a decisive resolution against terrorism. It reflects our commitment to national security and the resolve of our leadership. This is the time for every citizen to remain vigilant towards their duties and be ready to protect the nation and uphold social unity. Each and every ABVP member stands with the nation, society, and administration during this hour."
