The Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad welcomes the decision of the Central Government to celebrate the Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas on November 15, the birth anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda.

It is very well known that tribal community has made valuable contribution to the freedom struggle of India. Hundreds of tribal revolutionaries have contributed to freedom struggle by sacrificing their lives. The tribal community has always been at the forefront to protect the country, culture and religion. Keeping this in mind and respecting the sentiments of the tribal community, the decision of the Central Government to celebrate the birth anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda ji as 'Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas' is a welcome-worthy step. This makes the entire tribal community and the whole country proud.

ABVP's National General Secretary Nidhi Tripathi said, "We appreciate the Government of India for this decision. This will prove to be significant for the tribal society, which has been a protector of the nature and culture of India, and will restore the glorious history of India."
