Decision by Karnataka High Court in Hijab case is welcome: ABVP

It is necessary to follow uniform dresscode in educational institutions.

The Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad welcomes the decision of the Karnataka High Court to ban any sectarian clothing in addition to the uniform, including the hijab, in educational institutions. This decision has been taken by the High Court after hearing the matter for a long time and considering the arguments of all the parties. ABVP is of the view that uniforms for all should be promoted in educational institutions.

During the hearing in the court, the hon'ble court cleared that wearing of hijab by Muslim women is not said to be necessary for Islam and it is necessary to come in a certain uniform in the school premises against which students cannot raise any objection.

National General Secretary of Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad, Ms Nidhi Tripathi said, "Education is a means of moving man towards upliftment. For this, educational institutions must be kept away from orthodox beliefs and the students themselves should also do away with cult-oriented thought and help to strengthen an inclusive educational environment.
