TMC Student's Wing affiliate goons Attack on students in Nabadwip, West Bengal

ABVP Condemns the Ongoing Violence and Continuous Attacks on Students in West Bengal

Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad (ABVP) strongly condemns an unprovoked attack on students at Nabadwip Vidyasagar College in West Bengal by goons affiliated with the Trinamool Congress (TMC) Party. The assault carried out with heavy weapons, highlights the deteriorating law and order situation in West Bengal.

In the context of escalating violence in West Bengal, endangering students, women, and youth, ABVP criticizes the state's focus on political maneuvering and corruption. The disruptive actions of TMCP-associated goons contribute to the prevailing chaos. ABVP demands immediate and stringent actions against those responsible for the attack, emphasizing the importance of ensuring the safety of students.

ABVP's National General Secretary, Shri Yagywalkya Shukla, stated, "The resilience of our karyakartas in upholding an inclusive and peaceful vision for West Bengal resonates with Swami Vivekananda's ideals and unwavering determination. ABVP Condemns the Ongoing Violence and Continuous Attacks on Students in West Bengal."
